

Peggy Joyce (Munroe) MacLeod

It is with great sadness we announce the peaceful passing of Peggy Joyce (Munroe) MacLeod of Middle River, on June 4th, 2018 in Victoria County Memorial Hospital, Baddeck. Born on December 9th, 1940, Peggy was the daughter of the late Francis Leslie and Wilma (MacDonald) Munroe. Loving wife of Alexander (Sandy) MacLeod; loving mother to Joy and Sandra. Peggy grew up on a farm with her three siblings and after attending Baddeck Rural High School, she went on to attend Normal College in Truro. She began her teaching career at Baddeck Elementary School in 1959 and then taught at MacCharles School in Middle River. After substituting at various schools for a few years, she gave up teaching to work in the family business with her husband, Sandy. They developed many friendships over the years with the ones who became regular customers at their Honda Shop in Middle River. Peggy had an interest in genealogy. Belonging to Middle River Historical Society she had the opportunity to meet people from other parts of the world who came searching for their roots in Middle River. She co-authored a book about the history of Middle River. Besides being passionate about genealogy, she made quilts and was an active member of the Baddeck Quilt Guild for many years. Peggy is survived by her loving husband of 55 years, Sandy A. E. MacLeod; daughters, Sandra (Dave) and Joy Richards; granddaughters, Cassidy, Alix, Chloe and their father Rodney; nephew, Ralph Hamilton who was like a son to her; his wife, Kerry and their daughters, Brooke and Bailey, Bedford, NS; sisters, Jean (Don) MacAulay, Sydney, Lesley Monroe, Sydney and Shirley Monroe, Dudley, Mass, and their families; nieces, Paige and Krista; nephews, Scott, Jeff, Todd, Lyle, Jordan and numerous cousins. There will be no visitation. A Celebration of Life service will be held Thurs, June 7th at 2 p.m. in Middle River Presbyterian Church with Rev. Brian MacLeod officiating. Interment to follow in Church Cemetery followed by a reception at the Middle River community Hall. Family flowers only please. Memorial donations in memory of Peggy may be made to Victoria County Palliative Care or Cape Breton Regional Cancer Centre.
