

Reid, Francis Owen “Frank”

With regret and sorrow we announce the passing of a dear husband and father, Sunday, September 16 at Harbour View Hospital, Sydney Mines. Frank was born in Dominion, Cape Breton on Nov. 23, 1930 to parents; Hugh and Elizabeth (MacNeil) Reid. His Air Force career took him to many places throughout the world; but, his heart was in Cape Breton and the place he loved best in Cape Breton was the old MacPhee farm house in Big Baddeck; which became home for Francis, Mary and their family. No job was too big for Frank and the loss of his leg from the knee down never slowed him down. He was a man of honesty, integrity and compassion. Frank is survived by his loving wife of 66 and a half years, Mary; 4 sons, 2 daughters, 1 brother, 4 grandsons, 4 granddaughters, 5 great- grandchildren, beloved nieces and nephews also dear sisters and brothers-in-law. Besides his parents and his parents-in-law he was predeceased by his daughter, Bonnie Lou, 6 sisters and 1 brother. We would like to thank all our friends for the love, support and condolences; we appreciate all of you. A special “Thank You” to the nurses and doctors of the Harbour View Hospital, Home Care and Palliative Care for the care Frank received. A Celebration of Frank’s life will Take place at St. Michael’s Catholic Church, Baddeck, Friday, Sept. 21, 2018 at 2PM.

“Thank you God for allowing us to have him for nearly 88 years.
We give him back to you now; he is in your hands.”
