“Nannie Teresa”

MACKENZIE, Mary Teresa     South West Margaree

It is with sadness we announce the passing of our beloved “Nannie Teresa” on Jan. 4, 2021 in Inverary Manor, Inverness. She was born in Inverness, Sept. 1, 1929 to parents, James and Penelope (MacLellan) Doyle. She was very proud of her Spider Town Roots. She leaves behind her children and step-children; Cindy, Truro; John Hughie, South West Margaree; Rick and Tess, Toronto; Angus and Jessie, Halifax;

Eleanor and David, Truro; Jean and Sam, New Waterford; Allen, Halifax; Johnena, Annapolis Valley; and her sister, Anne Mullock. Nannie Teresa will be missed by her grandchildren and great-grandchildren with whom she had a very loving relationship. She helped shape how they see the world with humor and love. Teresa was a devoted and active member of her church, she was a former member of the CWL, a member of the choir, a Lector and a Eucharistic Minister. She also leaves to mourn, her family friend, Marie MacNeil who was a great support over the years. She was predeceased by the love of her life, her husband, John MacKenzie; children and stepchildren; Flora, Glen Cathy, Margaret and John; also several brothers and sisters. Funeral Service will be Fri, Jan. 8, 2021 at 11 am in St. Joseph’s Church, SW Margaree with Father Peter LeBlanc officiating. Covid-19 restrictions will be in place. Burial to follow in MacDougall Cemetery, SW Margaree. A Celebration of Life will take place when Covid restrictions are lifted. Donations in memory can be made to MacDougall Cemetery Fund or a charity of your choice.
